Re: In the Matter of Petition of USTelecom for Forbearance Pursuant to 47 U.S.C. Section 160(c); WC Docket No. 18-141; Category 1

Dear FCC,

I am a consumer using an excellent small local Internet provider for both my home (landline) telephone service as well as my familys home Internet access. This company has given me FAR SUPERIOR service than either AT&T or Comcast for more than 7 years and I will be MATERIALLY HARMED if you do not continue to allow copper line unbundling and adequate consumer market competition. I emphatically request that you deny USTelecoms petition to change Section 251(c)(3) of the US Telecommunications Act of 1996 on the FALSE claim that it will not materially harm competition. That is simply not the case. Additionally, my children now depend on this Internet access for much of their school work.

Thank you for continuing to protect consumer competition from the oligopolistic pursuits of USTelecom and the companies it represents.
